

In the past year and a half, PIH has increased its PHAS-related quality assurance activities. In addition, PIH is currently developing a compliance monitoring system that will systematize the Department's compliance-related oversight of public housing. When fully implemented, and a transparent quality assurance and compliance monitoring system are in place, PHAS will provide HUD and the public with a system that ensures both accurate assessments and accountability amongst PHAs.

Therefore, the Department is not moving ahead with the proposed PHAS rule at this time.
